it. So, Senator Chambers, that's my response.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Mr. Clerk, items for the record. New bills.

CLERK: Yes, Mr. President, I do, thank you, new bills. (Read LB 1119-1128 by title for the first time.) Mr. President, I have a Reference report referring LB 1086-1108. I have a hearing notice from the Banking, Commerce, and Insurance Committee; an amendment from Senator Baker to LB 559. Senator Stuhr would like to add her name to LB 879; Senator Mines to LB 1046; Senator Erdman to LR 202. And I have one more bill, Mr. President. (Legislative Journal pages 314-317.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Speaker Bromm, did you want to say something first?

SPEAKER BROMM: Yes. Mr. President, we have put out the agenda for next Tuesday and it is, I would say, a heavy agenda as far as the subject matter is concerned. The number of bills are not great in terms of the number, but we're going to try to work through some of those next week. So I hope you have a good weekend, a relaxing weekend, and be prepared to put in four pretty good days next week. Also with that being said, I want to move to adjourn until next Tuesday at 9:00 a.m.

SENATOR CUDABACK: I think the Clerk wants to say something first, Senator Bromm.

SPEAKER BROMM: I'm sorry.

CLERK: If I can, Mr. Speaker.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Sorry I interrupted you, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, two new bills. (Read LB 1129-1130 by title for the first time. Also notice of Education Committee hearing, Legislative Journal pages 317-318.)

Mr. President, Senator Bromm has moved to adjourn until Tuesday
